

Lindsay Clark

Nursing the Intensive Care Patient - Following Kirby's Rule of 20 | *Lindsay Clark

Learning objectives;

- Be familiar with Kirby's rule of 20
- Why it is an important tool in ECC nursing
- How it can be applied to a multitude of patients

Nursing the Intensive Care Patient;

- What type of patient's do we nurse in the ICU
- Triage and stabilisation
- Post-op considerations
- What is Kirby's Rule of 20
- Going through each rule in turn discussing why and what is monitored/measured- Covering medical and holistic considerations whilst nursing critical patients

Nursing the trauma patient | *Lindsay Clark

Learning Objectives;

- How to prioritise patients that present as an emergency
- Being confident in triage and stabilisation
- What we can do as nurses in trauma cases

Nursing of the trauma patient to include;

- Triage and classes of emergencies
- Primary and Secondary Surveys
- Shock
- Treatment and stabilisation
- Analgesia
- Nutrition
- Case Examples